THE WEEK IN GLENDALE

Progressive Live Stock Association.

Politics Beginning to Be of Interest.

New Buildings Being Erected—Shipments by Rail—Jottings of Personal Interest.

GLENDALE, Ariz., April 3.—(Special Correspondence of The Republican.)—School elections passed off in this district without any very exciting incidents. I. Miller was elected by a large majority to succeed the retiring trustee, A. Boyd. Mr. Miller will make a painstaking and progressive officer.

The board of supervisors on their trip of investigation were found that the charges against Road Overseer Hammels were founded on a very flimsy basis of fact, and decided that he should not be removed. Mr. Hammels has done more work on the roads during his term of office than all his predecessors put together, and at the minimum of cost to the county. The decision of the board meets with the approval of nearly every property owner here as far as I can ascertain.

The livestock association received another car of hog wire fencing Saturday. Glendale has become the distributing point for the entire valley for this article. The association received a car of lumber last week and another Tuesday which was consigned to some of their members in Mesa. This association bids fair to create a revolution in the lumber trade of the valley.

Two cars of sheep were shipped by Mr. Mundy to El Paso Sunday.

N. W. Rhodes and family arrived last week from Hardin Mo., and will make their home with us.

Harry Adams shipped two cars of choice grain hay to Williams Thursday. Hay is still commanding good prices, but the new crop which promises to be a heavy one will soon be ready to cut.

Clerk Pearce of Judge Crouse's office drove out Thursday with a merry party of sightseers.

The alfalfa fields and orchards now are sights fit to inspire the poet's pen and the artist's brush. It's strange we don't grow more spring poets here, but I presume it's because we're so busy making pictures that we haven't time to paint or sing their beauty.

The new Dunkard church is being rapidly erected and will soon be ready for occupancy.

Messrs. Rowland and Ditsworth of Lanark, Illinois, stopped here a day on their way to California and drove around with their old friend, J. B. Doner. They expressed themselves highly delighted with their brief survey of the valley and will very likely return to make some investments.

Echoes of the political fight are beginning to be heard here. Probably two primaries will be held and two sets of delegates elected to the county convention. Whatever the right or wrong of the matter, one thing can be counted on as a moral certainty, that the Republicans of this precinct will not be dominated or led into any course of action by one or two or three self-constituted leaders.

Wm. Weigold, a recent arrival from Missouri, has purchased four lots near R. C. Winslow's place, and will proceed at once to the erection of a substantial home.

H. B. Lehman's house west of town is approaching completion. John Forsyth expects to leave for Chicago Monday to look after his business interests there.

An entertainment will be given at Peoria next Friday night at which Mrs. Jarley's famous wafers will be exhibited. Ice cream and cake and a good time promised.

Rev. Preston McKinney passed through this afternoon en route to Peoria where the Arizona Presbytery convenes this evening. SENEX.

HUGHES HAS FRIENDS.

Woman's Christian Temperance Union Rallies to His Support.

CHICAGO, April 4.—The officers of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union have sent a telegram to Senator Frye to be presented to the secretary of the interior protesting against the removal of Governor Hughes of Arizona, urging a thorough investigation.

The reason for this is: "Governor Hughes' well-known championship of temperance in all questions of reform."

The state presidents of the W. C. T. U. are being urged to wire similar requests of their senators.

MEXICAN FILIBUSTERS.

SOLOMONVILLE, Ariz., April 4.—A warrant has been issued here today by the United States commissioner for Laura Aguirre and M. T. Chappa, the so-called revolutionists tried and discharged at El Paso last week.

Great Sunday dinner today at the Boston Cafe, 25 cents.

IT IS RESURRECTION DAY

Easter Tide and the End of Lent.

Special Services at the City's Churches.

Deep Significance of the Day When Christ Arose from the Dead.

Today is Easter, second only in importance in the festivals of the Christian churches to the day of the Saviour's nativity. It is the day of the Resurrection, the day on which the immortality of the soul is the theme of themes. The tale of holy week has been told and the agony of the cross is past; the Son of Man has appeared unto his disciples and the promise has been given that beyond the line of human sight there lies a land where reward shall be given in full measure.

It is a day of rejoicing therefore; full of rejoicing that the victory of Christ over death may be repeated in these latter days by everyone who treads in the Master's footsteps. From the walls of every church are stripped the emblems of mourning and in their place appear the white of purity, the flowers of life and joy and the evergreens of immortality.

Lenten season is past. Nature, in sympathy with the time, is clothing herself in bright raiment and the song of "He is Risen" joyfully rings in the place of the solemn chant of the final sacrifice.

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH.

Easter services today at St. Mary's church in charge of the Franciscan fathers) will be held as follows: Masses 7, 8 and 10 a. m.; Spanish sermon at 7 a. m.; English sermon at 10 a. m., accompanied by musical mass with Arriola's orchestra and sung by American choir. Evening services: Re-very lecture and benediction at 7:30 p. m.

For the first time since 1828 in Arizona have the Franciscan fathers had charge of a parish, but they are not strangers to Arizona. Their first visit to the Salt River valley dates back to 1539, when they planted the cross as far north as the present Moqui Indian villages, building some six churches, the ruins of which, evidently overlooked by the modern historian of Arizona (if at all known) are carefully described in the twelfth volume of the Smithsonian Institution, in that remote section between that year and 1660, the time of the general massacre. In 1768 they superseded the Jesuits in the extreme southern section of Arizona, building the once magnificent church of San Xavier, where they continued till 1828, sixty years, and today after an absence from Arizona of sixty-six years do we find these worthy men. Truly may we say the sons of Francis Assisi are among the early pioneers of our valley.

TRINITY EPISCOPAL.

Trinity Episcopal church has been beautifully decorated in honor of the day and Easter lilies will fill the chancel and flowers and greenery hide the walls. Elaborate preparations have been made for all the accessories of the beautiful Easter service of the ritual and the musical service will be of noteworthy excellence.

Today, as is fitting, will be the first use of the new pews, donated by an estimable lady member of the congregation. The pews are beautiful and most appropriate to the interior of the church and no other gift could as highly be esteemed by rector or communicants.

The order of the day's services is: Celebration of the holy communion, 7:30 a. m.; morning prayer and holy communion at 11 a. m.

For the 11 o'clock service the following musical programme has been arranged: Processional, "Welcome, Happy Morning;" anthem, "Christ, Our Passover;" Schilling, "Te Deum," Starkweather; hymn, "In E. Arthur Foote; hymn, "Christ, the Lord, is risen today;" offertory, "The Holy City," Mrs. Heighon.

In the evening at 7:30 will be the Sunday school Easter service at which the choir will render the anthem, "Christ, Our Passover," and the offertory anthem, "Saviour, When Night Involves the Skies," quartette with solo by Mr. Andrews.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Easter morning, sermon, 11 a. m. by Rev. T. C. Moffett of Flagstaff; Sunday school, 10 a. m.; Y. P. S. C. E., 6:30 p. m.; Junior Endeavors, 2:30 p. m. The music for the 11 a. m. services has been specially arranged. In all these meetings Easter will be commemorated. The church will be fittingly arranged in memory of our risen Lord.

In the evening will be held at the Presbyterian church the Easter services of the Phoenix commandery Knights Templar, led by Eminent Commander Charles W. Johnstone, the lecture and ritual service to be delivered by Sir Knight Hülzinger of Tucson.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL.

This will be a memorable day with the society of the First Methodist Episcopal church. The basement of the new church is so far completed that services will be held there. Easter will be observed. Reception of members in the morning, followed by Easter offering and sermon. Pastor Chase cordially invites all to worship with the society and to join in hearty thanksgiving to the giver of all good. Services will be at the usual hours.

BAPTIST AND CHRISTIAN.

There will be no religious services in the Christian church on Easter Sunday except Sunday school and young people's meeting.

Rev. Cal. Ogburn, pastor of the Christian church, will occupy the pulpit at the Baptist church both morning and evening, Rev. Mr. Smith being absent attending an association meeting of his church in Prescott. The services will be appropriate to Easter and the music will be furnished by the united choir of the two churches.

A DEADLY CLOUDBURST.

Destruction Wrought by Raging Rivers in Kentucky.

BOONEVILLE, Ky., April 4.—The cloudburst on Little Sexton and Buffalo creeks is reported doing great damage to property. It is thought probably sixteen persons were drowned.

Sexton creek is one of the feeders of the south fork of the Kentucky river. It flows in some places through deep gorges. Through these gorges the stream rushes when in floodtide with the speed of a train and striking the bottomlands below spreads out with wonderful rapidity. The cloudburst occurred up in the gorges, the water gathered in a moment and a wild flood poured down in a solid wall, carrying death and destruction in its path.

Five people were drowned by the Little Sexton. Buffalo creek is even more crooked and tortuous than the Little Sexton and by its actions after the burst nine people are believed to have lost their lives.

A great many logs were hurled down with the tide and these speedily knocked cabins and outbuildings to pieces.

On Sexton creek and its tributaries five were drowned.

Jackson county suffered heavily, as did Clay and Owsleys. It was the most disastrous flood in years and came so quickly that it is a wonder any of the valley people escaped.

CALIFORNIA QUARANTINE.

SACRAMENTO, April 4.—The quarantine imposed by the department of agriculture which has rested upon this state with regard to the shipment of cattle has been modified and the embargo before from the section north of Lake Tahoe to the Oregon boundary line and from the crest of the Sierra Nevada mountains east to the Nevada line. A telegram received today from Secretary of Agriculture Morton announces the general government will furnish two inspectors to pass upon all cattle shipped from this state consigned to eastern points.

A RAISE IN STEEL.

NEW YORK, April 4.—There was a continuation today of the conference of steel manufacturers of the United States. All outsiders were excluded and the greatest secrecy was observed as to what is being done. It is said, however, that no action has been taken in regard to a protest against pooling pany of Pittsburgh yesterday and discussed at a meeting yesterday. A consensus of opinion was that an advance would probably be agreed to in the price of everything made of steel.

THE VALLEY ROAD.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—The affairs of the San Francisco & San Joaquin Valley railroad have progressed to such an extent that more money is now needed to complete the enterprise. For this reason an important conference will be held by the directors. The proposition of bonding the entire road from Stockton to Bakersfield a distance of 285 miles, will probably be decided upon, the bonds to bear either 4½ or 5 per cent interest.

RIVERS AND HARBORS.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The river and harbor bill of the Fifty-fourth congress was compiled by the committee on rivers and harbors today. The total amount appropriated by the bill is in round numbers $10,000,000, and provision is made for continuing works already under way, contracts to be made by secretary of war for works which will cost $51,000,000, for which appropriations will be made in the future. On Monday next the bill will probably be called up in the house.

CLARK CHURCHILL DEAD.

He Suddenly Expires of Heart Disease.

A Life that Abounded in Good Works.

His Record in Nevada, California and Arizona—The Funeral Monday.

Clark Churchill is dead. A noble soul has gone to rest. A citizen high in the councils of the people is missed. A chair is vacant in a home where peace abode.

Few are the Arizonans who did not know him. Throughout the territory, as throughout the west, was he rated as a leader, and his genial presence gained him friendship on every hand. The death was of heart disease, "fatty degeneration" it was called by the doctors, and it had been appreciated by the patient that his life hung by only a slender thread. Yet the end came with a swiftness little expected by any.

General Churchill for the past week had been ailing, yet was physically able to attend to all the details of his business. Yesterday morning he lay longer than has been his wont. Shortly after 7 Mrs. Churchill left him to attend to household cares, receiving the assurance that all was well with him and that he would soon arise. Only ten minutes later she returned, but Death had come during her absence. The end was peaceful and probably without pain.

The body lies attended by the fathers of the Franciscan order, as deceased for a number of years past had been a devout and consistent believer in the doctrines of the Catholic church. The funeral will be tomorrow morning from St. Mary's church on East Monroe street. There at 9 will be celebrated a solemn mass for the repose of the departed soul, rendered with assistance of full choir and orchestra.

Interment will be in the city cemetery, and the remains will be escorted to the grave by files of the citizen soldiery, whose chief he once was. District court will adjourn as a mark of respect and the grief of the city will be made manifest.

Clark Churchill was born in Pennsylvania in June, 1836, therefore lacking but a few months of attaining his sixtieth year. His early education was obtained under difficulties and in 1861 he had traveled to San Francisco in the hope of bettering his fortunes. He had studied law and soon became known as one of the brainiest young men of the golden state. In 1863 he removed to Virginia City, where he was made the junior member of the law firm of Keeney, Lee & Churchill, with them also being associated General Ohas. H. S. Willis, the association being declared by his old friend, Thomas Fitch, to have been a combination of the brightest legal minds on the Comstock. Churchill later went to Pine Grove, Esmeralda county, Nevada, where in mines he sunk a large amount of the capital he had amassed in the law.

From 1866 to 1877 he resided in San Francisco winning new laurels at the bar.

Thereafter he removed to Prescott, then the territorial capital, and in 1880 became a citizen of Phoenix. Here beside his legal and official duties he was one of those who successfully carried through the great project for the Arizona canal. His business affairs have since also been prosperous, his estate consisting in several valuable sections of farming land and in the valuable Churchill addition, now virtually included within the city.

In public life, General Churchill has been often honored. He was city attorney of Virginia City in '65, was adjutant general for Arizona for four years and attorney general for six years. For a term he was a member of the National Republican committee and he ever has been a consistent worker in that party, filling on occasions many important administrative positions in the partisan ranks. He was a Mason of high rank, a member of the Golden State commandery (San Francisco) Knights Templar, in the uniform of which degree he will be buried.

He had been married twice, there being no issue from either union.

COULD BE BRIBED.

Serious Charge Against a San Francisco Customs Official.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—Chinese Inspector of Customs Richard S. Williams has been indicted by the federal grand jury.

The charges upon which the customs official will be tried is that of illegally landing Chinese and permitting them to remain in this city, bribery being the motive.

The charges against Williams were preferred by Major Moore, special agent of the treasury department.
